Communication skills I am a friendly person with my personas. I like to share my views and ideas with my colleagues and professors. I understand good communication is always a key to open your mind and create good collusion of innovations.

Thus, I am able share my ideas and nevertheless, open hearted to others opinions.

Organisational / managerial skills Along with my studies, I have taken part as an active team member in my various school projects. With that, I have gain some experiences in working within a team and am capable of managing a team. Moreover, during my higher secondary level days, I was also a leader of my football team. Yet, not related to the my professions but I have known on how to manage a team and team inspiration for the desired target.

Job-related skills As I am a IT student, building software and learning new technologies are my cup of tea. I would prefer learning more and more languages as I can and try to thrive myself as a good programmer. Thus, I am always up to date with new technologies.

However, Javascript or web development has always been a point of interest to me. I am currently focusing on javascript/ MEAN Stack development. I have good knowledge of REST APIs and no-sql databases though I have done some projects on PHP and relational database(MYSQL). I have done several MEAN Projects during my school time and also helped in Free Lancing Projects. I have good skills of JQuery, AJAX and React js, AngularJS for client-side and NODE JS and Express JS as a server-side. I have also done advance project using websocket / Socketio .

My Skills:

- jQuery / Ajax,
- React JS,
- Angular JS,
- Bootstrap,
- Node JS /Express JS,
- PHP Vanilla,
- MongoDB,
- mySQL,
- Socket.io,
- S3 / Cloudinary for cloud storage
